The Art of the Festive Season | Christmas 2026

A heritage of celebration at Kenwood Hall, Christmas is more than a season; it is a tradition refined over centuries. Once the private estate of Chief Cutler George Wolstenholme, our historic four-star residence provides a storied backdrop for your most significant winter moments. Whether you are curating cherished memories with family, toast-making a year of professional triumph with colleagues, or retreating for a serene escape with friends, we invite you to experience the pinnacle of festive hospitality.

Excellence in every detail, our dedicated team is committed to ensuring 2026 concludes with unparalleled elegance. From the delights of our seasonal menus to the timeless charm of our grounds, every element of your stay is choreographed for perfection. Situated in a prime location that balances city convenience with country-house tranquillity, a Kenwood Christmas is an enduring tradition - one you will find yourself returning to year after year.
